b>WHAT DID YOU EXPECT?

Your expectations are yours and yours only! IT'S ALL ABOUT EXPECTATIONS!

Have you ever wondered how you can achieve your dreams - yes, the ones you rarely share with others? In this book you will discover that success is all about expectations. Review the guidelines and explanations using a "...Road Map...©" of fundamentals necessary to define and cope with your everyday expectations. The CLUES are:

- Improving your relationships at work, at home, and at play
- Gaining the ability to deal with conflicting opinions in everyday life
- Harnessing the proper communication skills to achieve your expectations
- Creating awareness of the emotions and traits involved in the results of your expectations
- Discovering insight into your own spiritual needs
- Questioning your thoughts about the role of government

These tools will advance your entire life from childhood to adulthood; from student to the workforce; from doubting to believing; and finally to trusting in yourself to meet and exceed your own expectations.

Included are anecdotes and illustrations to empower you to understand your life expectations. The authors have developed and provided this vital information to show you how to be more in touch with yourself and others, to reach the goals you dream about, and to become a connected part of society!
