Christmas Poetry to Inspire Jean Kay

Christmas Poetry to Inspire is a collection of poems written by Jean Kay who writes a poem every morning to start her day. Her poems are thought-provoking, easy to read, understandable and usually rhyme.

Reading inspirational poems relating to Christmas can create the peace of mind we all long for at this busy time of year. Give yourself a gift and take some time from the hustle bustle of the Christmas Season to relax, enjoy and soothe your soul with inspiration from Christmas Poetry to Inspire.

There are many reasons to celebrate Christmas—sharing good food with family and friends, carol singing, attending concerts, lunches, and church services of all denominations. All these ways to celebrate are mentioned in poems throughout the book.

One of the inspirational poems is titled Christmas Music and is the story of Christmas told by using 34 titles of Christmas carols. It has been a popular recital poem for Jean at various Christmas events.

Christmas Poetry to Inspire is created to inspire, encourage, support and help us to remember that Love is the best gift to give and receive and not only at Christmas. In the poem Spirit of Christmas, one popular line reads “sharing love, spreading peace and forgiving acts of the past.” Those are wonderful ways we can keep the spirit of Christmas alive and active all year.

What some readers are saying about Jean Kay’s poems:

Jean has been writing a poem for our monthly newsletter at KinVillage Community Centre for 13 years. It always amazes me how Jean comes up with the perfect poem for every occasion of the year as well as being specific to our members. Her writings are not only meaningful, but beautiful. Congratulations on this new book Jean. Wanda Green, Newsletter Editor

As always you capture our hearts with your words Jean, and I agree that if the Spirit of Christmas was with us all year round we would be a much happier world. D.Y.

Jean that is so beautiful, I'm going to keep this poem and frame it for my bedroom. You are such a gifted writer. I love all your poems. You are so blessed. Darlene R.

I just read your Christmas poem and it was so pleasing to read. Thank you for showing your spirit and love of life through your writings. I admire you very much. You do things that make people happy, grateful, inspired and reflective. Doreen K
