The description of emotional details makes this book is so special in its field. In the book, Susan MacGee will lead you through each stage of pregnancy and accompany you for every day of your pregnancy. Susan will let you feel she has the magic of reading your heart. She allows you to experience without guilty the emotional fluctuation caused by pregnancy. She even will make you proud of the emotional fluctuation. More importantly, Susan will help you hold reasonable expectations on your significant mate, which thus makes the lovely two-person to continue. She discusses the nature of pregnancy in humor and undisguised straightforward way, encouraging you to live just as a normal person during pregnancy; Therefore, readers are inclined to be deeply attracted by the book. Its surprising that women often question their ability as a mother and feel sorry for what they think they can do better. However it is not the case. Whatever we exert how many efforts and how much we sacrifice during the pregnancy or even suffers a lot from a medical complications, without exception we will still feel a pity for we think that we may do more.
