This Love Is War A. Mackin

For the last 12 years, Allison has been forced to keep the details of what happens behind closed doors with her husband, Detective David Cooper, a secret. In the community that he protects daily, David is regarded as a highly decorated hero and one of the best detectives that the Baltimore City Police Department has to offer. Unfortunately, David is also one of the dirtiest cops in the city, and eventually Allison finds herself fighting an all out war against her husband, where she threatens to expose secrets that could not only destroy him, but also put the BCPD to shame.

Follow Allison's story as she invites you into the world of a cop's wife. Extortion, rape, drug dealing, and even murder are just a few of the scandals that she has kept hidden in order to protect her husband. But after years of abuse at the hands of the man who promised to love and protect her, Allison decides that she's had enough and declares an all-out war to rid herself of David once and for all. The plan seems easy enough, except during their marriage, Allison develops a few secrets of her own that could also destroy her if exposed. Those same secrets cause Allison to use the wrong people as pawns in her plan to get away from David, and, in the end, she needs more protection than she bargained for. Running out of time with her back against the wall, Allison makes the ultimate move that ends up costing someone their life.

Will Allison be able to end the raft of David and live happily ever after, or will the secrets they've both been keeping come falling out of the closet and destroy them both? Allison Cooper has officially declared war against the man she promised to love until death do them part, and, in the end, only one of them can win. Which one will it be?
