The Ghost, The Rat, and Me (Episode Two) Robyn Gioia

Eighth-grade sleuth, Campbell Olson, wanted to be class president. What she got was a dead rat, a clue, and a ghost from the past. Things aren't the same when your best friend dies in a car accident. But when your best friend, Temple, comes back as a ghost to help you solve a case, life definitely becomes better. You'll love him. He's a funny, opinionated, cool nerd who doesn't quite have the hang of being a ghost. When I, Campbell (Bell) Olson, decided to run for eighth-grade president, I didn't expect my opponent to be Will Tuffy, the most obnoxious boy at school. I especially didn't expect the race to start with a dead rat on my doorstep! That was the easy part. From there, things got worse and my case went from being a mystery, to a dangerous trail of clues. This is my tale of the ghost, the rat, and me. Bell Olson
