THE WITCH DETECTIVES is a compelling and darkly funny paranormal mystery series with snappy dialogue, fast-paced plots that twist and turn, witchy romance, and supernatural thrills.

Elle Chambers is an enchantress, a witch whose powers focus on the manipulation of emotions. Some might even call her an emotion vampire. Elle makes her living as an insurance claims investigator who solves cases using supernatural means. Her sidekicks include a beguiling sexy enchanter, a spell witch who alternates between nemesis and friend, a werewolf legal advisor, and a pregnant goblin—creatures who add even more bewitching charm to the mix of paranormal mystery and magical mayhem.

When an ancient relic of Scotland goes missing and Elle’s powerful enchanter boyfriend, Niall, is the prime suspect, Elle travels to the Outer Hebrides with Fergie the werewolf, Rebecca the spell witch, and three goblins to meet a very special client, one who will change her path. Forever.

Elle is determined to learn the truth about herself, her beloved Niall, the coven, her dead mother, and the missing relic, no matter how terrifying it all is. What she learns could destroy all that she holds dear. Above all, Elle and her motley entourage of magical beings must recover the powerful relic before it’s too late. For all of witchdom.

WITCH BONES, the fourth novel in THE WITCH DETECTIVES series, is a hefty 72,000+ words and it’s the biggest story in the entire series, so far. The next book in the continuing series (WITCH DETECTIVES #5) will be published in Fall 2015.
