How to Win a Law-School Election, and Beyond: The Science of Personal Politics Stephen E. Schilling
This book is a detailed guide that gives law students a step-by-step formula for winning any law-school election. Law students recognize the value that future employers place on elected leadership positions, and they compete fiercely to win. But few of them run competent campaigns simply because they do not know how. This book changes that by taking the mystery out of the process. This book gives students a simple, systematic approach to winning any law-school election, regardless of the office or level of competition. But beyond that, it also teaches the fundamental lessons of all political success. Not only will this book teach you how to win a law-school election, it will teach you the science of personal politics, thereby providing a solid foundation for future political success.
