Cinnamon (The Hinton Family Book 3) Melinda L

Cinnamon Hinton knew that something had to change in not only her professional life but in her private life. All of her sister's were getting married and starting their family while she continued to be in her father's shadow until a new man moves in the house across from her and shows her that he is there to stay. Leaving New Jersey to move to Rome Georgia was a dream come true for Micah. He knew leaving home would make him become more of a man than anyone expected. Never in his wildest dreams did he think he would find the woman of his dreams.
