Young people are constantly being bombarded with the wrong ideas and expectations when it comes to dating. The media has done its best to equate dating with sleeping together?and our kids are at risk. Using personal stories, humor, and straight talk, Michael and Amy Smalley challenge young adults to understand and grasp godly principles of honor and purity. Their experiences and interaction with today's youth give them incredible insights into how young people think and why they do what they do. This new book will speak to today's young adults where they're at and help them deal with dating and all it means.
