Meet Emma Johnson. Emma has always loved Christmas and, with husband George, is planning a huge family reunion in a beautiful rented house complete with roaring fires, carols, and juicy turkeys. Trouble is, her family wishes are very different from hers.

Take George's brother, Richard. Married to disenchanted Lorna, the couple is at odds on most things, and this includes Christmas.

As for George's second brother, Jack, he is married to Jill. Unlike their innocent nursery-rhyme name connection, this is a couple with secrets, plans, and very little love between them.

Mix this with the family's disenchanted offspring, an ex wife, a lover of yesteryear, a mother with a touch of Alzheimer's, and the scene is set for a Christmas reunion like no other.
