You're the Butter on My Biscuit!: And Other Country Sayin's 'bout Love, Marriage, and Heartache Allan Zullo, Gene Cheek

From the authors of the popular Butter My Butt and Call Me a Biscuit calendar series and book, here's a fun, warm-hearted collection of about love and marriage, romance and heartbreak countrified sayings, so-sos, hoots and hollers about love and marriage, romance and heartbreak.

More fun than a lost dog in a meat market and livelier than a puppy with two tails, You're the Butter on My Biscuit! is a hilarious chronicle of countrified love commentary. It features sayings that are as tender and sweet as honey-dipped chicken wings for those smitten by Cupid . . . and as fiery and spicy as horseradish-laced chili peppers for those seeking revenge over a romance turned sour.

Readers will appreciate the way country folk paint their sentences about love in the most vivid and original analogies, sew simple words of emotion together into tapestries of truisms, and pepper their language with zesty wit and biting rage. You're the Butter on My Biscuit! is chock-full of country sayings, jokes, poems, and song titles about finding love and losing it. This is the kind of book that readers will relish till the cows come home.
