Confrontation with the Devil Robert W. Pelton

In Manila, a little girl writhes in agony bitten all over by devils only she can see. She curses God - and Missionary Lester Sumrall - in practiced, powerful English. After her deliverance, the girl remembers no English. How could she? She has spoken Spanish all her life. A young man stands over the bodies of his wife and two children, his pocket knife still in his hand, He calls the police: "My God. I've just killed my family! But it wasn't ME!... Bear witness for yourself through the firsthand accounts of the terrible power of Satan in today's world, written by the dedicated men who have had...
