This is the tale of Miss Freckle Frog who lived under a big rock. She was ugly, as all frogs are, but she loved pretty things, perhaps because she was not pretty herself. But although she was not pretty, she was a kind-hearted little body, and all her friends liked her. A little girl named Marian had a well dressed doll called Big Mary which she used to sit on top of Freckle Frog's rock each day. The story revolves around Freckle Frog's search for some clothes as fancy as Big Mary's so that she can attend Mr Robin Redbreast's party in the orchard. The story ends with Freckle Frog experiencing a huge boost to her self esteem.

Like the original paper book this digital version is full of beautiful color illustrations (for devices that display color) that bring the story to life. When you read this story to a child they will be able to relate to Freckle Frog and the story will come alive. If you are looking for a bedtime story for young children, the story of Miss Freckle Frog will definitely hold their attention.

How Freckle Frog Made Herself Pretty was written by Charlotte Herr and the beautiful color illustrations are also by the very talented and prolific Frances Beem.
