Sometimes love finds you when you're least expecting it.

Lady Ceanna of Castle Glen has been living a life of gloom and abuse ever since her mother was murdered by her own father. To make matters worse, the abusive Duke has traded her hand in marriage to the brutish Lord Worthby of England, in exchange for knights and money. When the cruel Worthby tries to take Ceanna, she flees into the woods at the foot of the highlands—despite tales of rebels and beasts hiding among the thick pines.

The knights give chase, and Ceanna is overrun by one who threatens to attack her. Ceanna faints when a massive wolf kills the knight and turns toward her. Upon awakening, Ceanna finds she's been captured by rebels, including the handsome leader, Connell McCriag who is infuriatingly clever and appears to have saved her from the wolf. The rebels act like good people, but that would mean everything she's ever been taught is wrong. When the knights attack, and Connell hides her from harm, she has to make a decision: Fight her own father's men, or turn on the rebels who saved her.

Get ready for intrigue, mystery, and seduction in the highlands! Oh... and be forewarned, this book is intended for mature (18+) audiences.
