Witch Daze Patricia Della-Piana

In this book, you will find strange occurrences, murders of men and women throughout history, who were accused (some falsely) of witchcraft, and notations from the lives of the famous, the infamous and the virtually unknown. The birth days of many important pagan and new age personalities, living or not, are included, as are the death days of many others. In a single volume, hundreds of pagan moments for you to celebrate, remember, or take note of. Contains at least one event for every day of the year - including leap year! Space is provided, at each day, for you to input additional circumstances as they occur, or those which are of consequence for your personal remembrance.
